About Online Testing

Computer Based Testing (CBT)

All examinations are taken via AAH's secure online Computer-Based Testing (CBT) Portal. The exam is taken while logged into your AAH account, at www.AmericanAlliedHealth.com, either from your own home computer or onsite, if directed by one of our 300+ AAH-Affiliated Testing Partners.

Test Results

All scoring is determined via the CBT portal's computer calculations and test results are shown immediately. Upon passing the exam, you immediately gain access to documentation of a passing grade, as well as your official certification documents themselves.

Retake Examinations

The first retake examination is included in the initial registration fee. There is no mandatory cool off period between retake exams; you may initiate a retake exam from within your AAH account whenever you are ready. And if you need additional test attempts, further examinations may be purchased for a small retake fee.

Appeal Policy

Candidates who receive a non-passing score have the ability to appeal their test results up to 30 days after an examination attempt. Appeals must include the candidate name, date of testing, and description of the reason for appeal.

Send requests directly to appeals@americanalliedhealth.com – the Appeals Review Committee will respond within 15 days of submission.

System Requirements

The online exam is compatible with all modern web browsers and both Apple and/or PC systems.

The testing portal may be accessed the device of your choosing:

General Information

What is National Certification?

Certification provides standardized, third-party evaluation of the competencies of allied health professionals—according to national standards of care. This is why it is often required by employers. Certification has become standard practice for joining allied healthcare careers.

National Certification vs State Licensure

Certification is not the same thing as a state licensure program. This can be confusing because some states require active AAH certification as a pre-requisite to applying for licensure in that state—but earning the certification itself is a non-governmental process. Most states do not have a licensure requirement beyond AAH certification. Use our searchable Regulations Map to verify there are no additional requirements beyond AAH certification to work in your state.

Competency-Based Testing

AAH certification exams are designed to evaluate key competency areas expected of entry-level allied health professionals. These “competencies” are demonstrated by the applicant’s ability to apply—in a testing environment—their understanding of the relevant knowledge, skills, and abilities (KSAs) that are determined by the American Allied Health Board of Examiners.

AAH Board of Examiners

AAH’s question pool is developed, maintained, and systematically peer-reviewed by a panel of subject matter experts, medical doctors, pharmacists, and educators, who are collectively referred to as the “Board of Examiners.” The Board is responsible for ensuring AAH’s standardized exams test for key competency areas which are in line with national standards of care.

Membership in the American Allied Health Association

Those who pass the national exam are automatically placed on AAH’s national registry and receive free membership in the American Allied Health Association. Benefits include gaining access to AAH’s library of continuing education courses, employee verification and documentation services, digital record keeping, professional networking, and more.

Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Process

To create an AAH account and register for an exam, all users must first read and agree to AAH’s Code of Conduct and the website’s Terms and Conditions. If any member is found to be in violation of these standards, then, in accordance with our written Disciplinary Policy and Bylaws, that member’s certification may be revoked.

Renewal Process: How to Keep Your Certification

After you pass a national exam, your certification remains active for one year; afterward it must be renewed annually to keep your credentials current. As long as you maintain your certification, you will not need to retake the exam.

Keeping your certification current is simple: everything is done online, once a year, directly within your AAH account. There are only two renewal requirements: paying renewal membership dues and completing online continuing education (CE) courses (or upload your own external documentation of completed CE courses).

How often do I renew? How much does it cost?

To keep your certification current you must renew once a year by logging back into your AAH account. The annual membership renewal dues are $32.00 per year.

Renewal Requirements

1

Pay annual renewal dues:

$32.00

2

Complete Continuing Education:

5 CEs

Late Renewals

In most cases renewal is still possible after paying a small late fee. But depending on your last expiration date, you may have to re-register and retake the exam.

Renewal by Reciprocity

If you were previously certified with another agency, and your certification has not been expired longer than 3 years, then you may renew your certification with AAH without retesting. You may apply for renewal by reciprocity within your AAH account by uploading a copy of your previous certification card, or official documentation showing your previous MemberID/Certification# and latest expiration date.

Continuing Education

What is the Continuing Education (CE) Requirement?

To keep your certification current you must complete at least 5 CE credits before your next expiration date. You can get these credits anytime throughout the year by taking a short, online CE course provided by AAH – or by uploading documentation of your own external CEs (CEUs, CECs, or CEHs) you have earned that year.

Online CE Courses Provided by AAH

AAH provides a library of online CE courses; you may self-study the material and take a small quiz over the content. Upon course completion, CE credits are automatically applied towards your account for renewal.

How to Import External CE Credits

If you have completed any external CE courses within the last year, you may upload documentation of your training directly into your AAH account. Your documents will be reviewed, and if approved, your CE credits will be imported into your AAH account. There is, however, a small processing fee when applying external CEs towards renewal.

Two ways to apply CEs towards your certification

- A Get AAH CE Credits
- B Import non-AAH CEs
